Message from the President

November, 2017

As we enter the holidays, I'm happy to report all is well with our club and its members. We will have only two meetings in the next two months. November 14th will be our Thanksgiving celebration and on December 12th we celebrate the Christmas holiday, including a special musical performance by the Cambria Chorale. Mark your calendars and bring your favorite person. I will make every effort to keep these meetings fitting for the audience. Both meetings will feature special holiday meals.

Many thanks to Lanny Loveland, Mike Walsh and the many other Lions who made this year's White Cane Day a great success. We saw a significant increase in funds raised due to everyone's effort.

For those of you who missed OctoberFest, it was a big hit. The good crowd had a great time, and the club made some money. This was the first year for this joint venture between the Lions Club and the Scarecrow committee. We will get a brief report at November's meeting. Thanks to Jim Hollingshead and the crew who helped make it happen.

Another bit of good news came our way last month. Longtime member Roy Hammond, who passed away in 2016, left the club ten thousand dollars from his Trust. This couldn't have come at a better time, and gives us all reason to remember Roy's many contributions. His Trustee requested that the funds should go to the Lions scholarship program.

Enough news for now. This will be my last President's message until next year, unless something extraordinary happens. I will everyone a wonderful holiday season.

Mike Broadhurst
